RAIDER

1 one unique ATC created per day every leap year adding up to 366 ATCs in total
2 the theme will be set every week and unique ATCs will be created using that same theme
3 each theme will be selected on the previous Saturday as the week is understood to start on Sundays
4 it’s most certain that both first and last week of said year will have less than seven days
5 the theme will be a randomly chosen word from a book
6 online word generators can be used only if no book is readily available 7 whenever possible a video, of the act of choosing a theme, should be made
8 themes will be chosen by Monsenhor enVide neFelibata and Erin S. Young alternately
9 small words such as "a", "an", "to" and similar won't be used and if there is any doubt, the above-listed persons can decide on it
10 literal translations into the artists' native language and even their poetic and homonyms meanings can come into play
11 the same word can't be used more than once, even though it could eventually have been randomly selected multiple times
12 in case of randomly selecting a picture from a book, that picture will be scanned and must be used on each of those weeks ATCs at its original scale
13 furthermore, if a picture has come into play, a word must be chosen from another book that contains no pictures such as dictionaries and both picture and word will be set as the theme
14 all online publications must be made using the hashtag #atc366_2016 [#atc366_YEAR]
